

Undesirable Species for Pollinator Habitat

Undesirable species that may adversely affect the quality of pollinator habitat due their ability to out compete the more desirable species. The following list is not exclusive.

- All species on the Illinois Noxious Weed List
https://extension.illinois.edu/ezregs/ezregs.cfm?section=viewregs_byq&QuestionID=307&searchTerm=&ProfileID=1
- All species on the Illinois Exotic Weed List
<https://www.dnr.illinois.gov/education/Documents/IllinoisExoticWeeds.pdf>
- Bird's foot trefoil
- Crown vetch
- Hairy vetch
- Sericea Lespedeza
- Bradford/Callery Pear
- Smooth Brome
- Tall Fescue
- Sawtooth oak
- Burning bush
- Garlic mustard
- Japanese Hops
- Winter creeper
- Yellow and white sweet clover
- Japanese stilt grass
- Johnsongrass
- Japanese chaff flower
- Dame's Rocket
- Spotted knapweed
- Wild parsnip
- Common reed
- Reed canary grass